

How to get to Eurofund

Eurofund (87 Hayarkon Street) is located south of the Dan Hotel building, directly under the King David Tower. The most convenient parking facility is the "Gan London" parking place that is located directly south of the King David Tower. The aerial photograph below shows how to enter this underground parking facility.

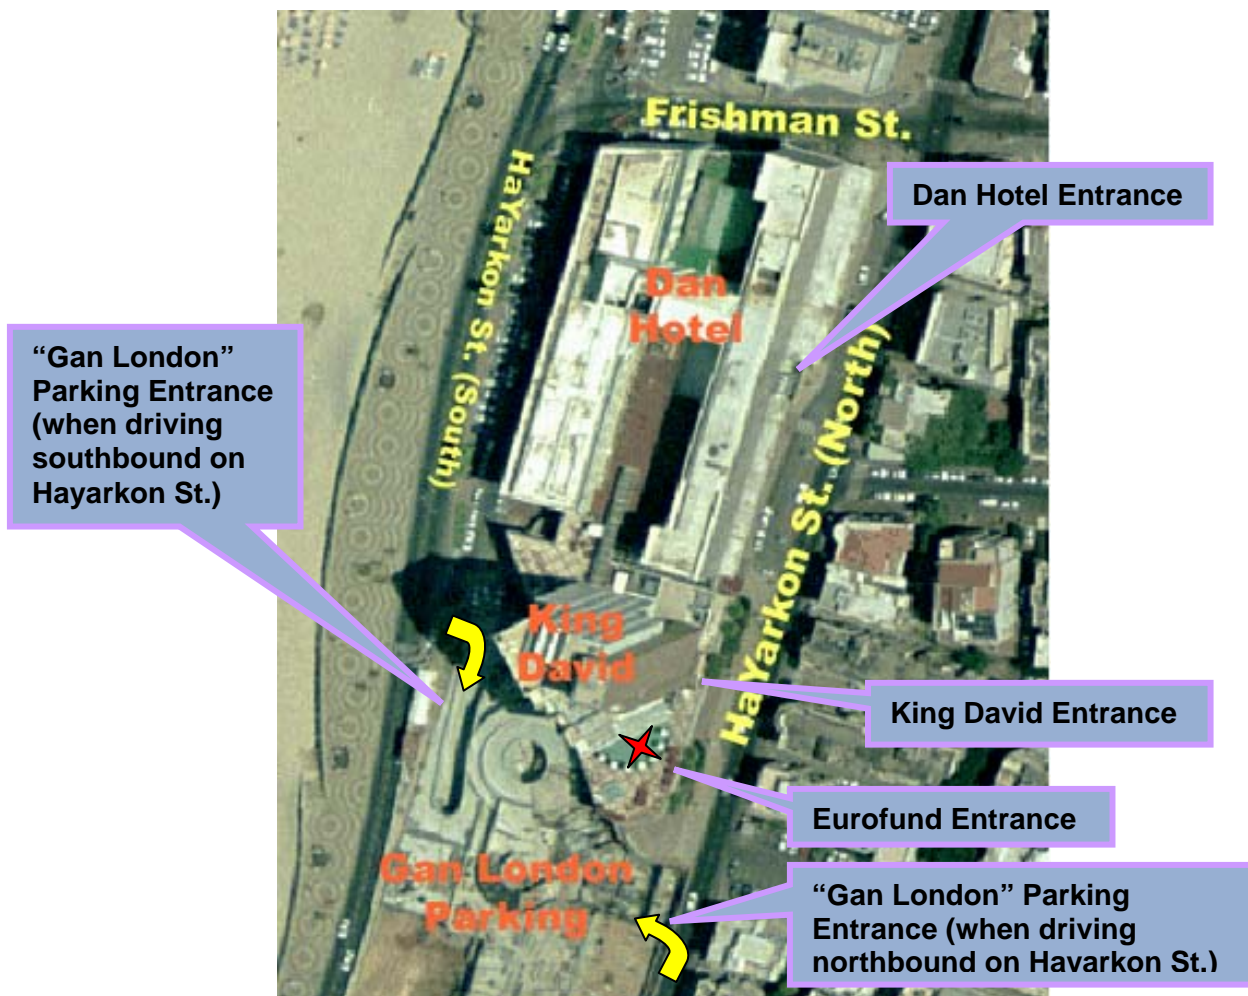

Driving Directions:

- From East: From Ben Gurion Airport take Route 1 to Tel Aviv leading to Ayalon Highway North. Exit right at Arlozorov Street and proceed West (~2.5 km) until Hayarkon Street. Turn left on Hayarkon and proceed 1 km until the Dan Hotel.
- From North: Drive south on Route 2 to Tel Aviv. Turn right on to Rokach Blvd at the bridge. Continue down Rokach (~2.7 km) until it leads into Hayarkon Street. The Dan Hotel is about a mile down Hayarkon Street.
- From South: Take Route 4, exit at the Ganot Interchange. Follow the signs to Tel Aviv. Exit Ayalon Highway at Arlozorov Street exit. Follow Arlozorov proceed Westbound (~2.5 km) until Hayarkon Street. Turn left on Hayarkon and proceed 1 km until the Dan Hotel.

Parking Directions (“Gan London” facility):

- From North: When driving southbound on Hayarkon St., 50 meters after crossing Frishman St., take the left entrance into the parking lot.
- From South: When driving northbound on Hayarkon St., immediately after crossing Bograshov St. (50 m short of the King David Tower), take the left entrance into the parking lot.

Finding the Entrance:

The entrance to Eurofund faces the northbound part of Hayarkon Street at the street level. It is the southern-most door in the King David Tower / Dan Hotel complex building. Look for the “Federmann Enterprises” sign to the right of the entrance.